Abandoned Husband and Children. Joseph Anderson is a carpenter and resides on Twenty-fifth near Leavenworth street. He is now wifeless and his children motherless, Mrs. Anderson, a few days ago, having abandoned all and fled to Sweden. Two of the children are attending school; the others need a mother's care.

Dear Liquor Selling.

The case of Charles Kumner and his partner, G. A. Gustus, charged with selling whisky on election day in their saloon on South Sixteentn street, came up before Judge Berka yesterday afternoon. After hearing the testimony, the judge inflicted a fine of $100. An appeal to the district court was taken.

Murray and Murphy.

Seats for the engagement of Murray and Murphy, at Boyd's opera house, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of this week, went on sale yesterday. "Our Irish Visitors" has never been played here, and peo-ple will naturally have a desire to see the best Irish comedy of recent times played by by the kings of Irish comedy.

mick, of the police department, was taken suddenly ill and he was at once conveyed to his apartments on Fourteenth and Davenport streets. A physician was summoned and pronounced his affliction intermittent Since taking his bed Captain Cor mick has gradually grown more under the influence of the fever, and at last reports he was considered a very sick man.

A Deceived Briton.

An Englishman holding a ticket to Sar Francisco arrived in Omaha on yesterday's Wabash train too late for the Union Pacific. He wished to go to the Union Pacific te'cet office to reserve a berth, and told a cab driver where to go. The driver took him to the Webster street dopot, charged him $1 and hurried away. A choice selection or two of scripture from his highness followed when he learned where he had been taken. The street car was rich and honest enough for him on his return trip.

Small-Pox Prevention.

There was a meeting of the members of the board of health yesterday afternoon in the mayor's office. Dr. Ralph announced that the patient suffering from small-pox was rapidly recovering, the case not being of a virtuent type. The doctor also informed the board that he had communicated with the board of education on the matter of preven-tion of the disease, and the latter had as-sured him that they would use every precaution to prevent the contagion spreading among the children of the city. Crimes and Criminals. John Dempsey, the villainous looking thief who attempted to go through the pockets of George Sailer and another of the same name while they were asleep in a Tenth street saloon, was tried yesterday and sentenced to forty days in the county jail, Peter Nash was arraigned for stealing a handsome lap robe from the barn of N. J. Edholm, Twenty-fifth and Chicago streets. The robe was found in his possession, He pleaded guilty and was given thirty days in the county jail.

Fleeced a Cowboy.

A cowboy named G. G. Lackey, who was on his way from Colorado to Southerland, Ia., stopped a few hours in Omaha and got somewhat istoxicated. While in this condition two crooks couldenced him out of his entire roll of money. After getting this they asked him what time it was and when he took his watch out they snatched it and ran away. As he had no money to stay and help the officers find the robbers, he sold his fine buffalo overcout to a hackman for $5, which was just about sufficient to take him to his destination, and left on the next train greatly disgusted with himself.

Wolfe's Nebraska Gazeteer. One of the handiest and most valuable books ever compiled in relation to the state of Nebraska is the State Gazeteer and Busi ness Directory just issued by J. M. Wolfe & Co., of this city. It is a volume of 1012 pages, but so arranged that any facts desired can be obtained without a moment's trouble. The information embraced in the work in-cludes a general description of the state, its productions, soil, climate, natural advantages, rainfall, railroad facilities, educational institutions, names of state, county and city officials, an alphabetical list of towns with their population, postoffices, newspapers, churches, and a complete classified directory of all histograms. fied directory of all business houses in the state. The remains of Colonel E. B. George were interred in the Masonic section of Forest Hill cemetery yesterday aftsrnoon. funeral expenses were borne by the benevolent acquaintances of the deceased.

The pall bearers were Andy Moynihan. The pall bearers were Andy Moynihan, Henry Parisn, E. McHenry and J. Handel.

Immediately after the receipt of a telegram from the family of the late Colonel Cleorge in St. Paul, refusing to provide for the desposition of the remains, Mr. Hander started a subscription, and with the proceeds the interment has been made. His funeral induced a centiferman to such as follows:

induced a gentleman to speak as follows:

"When I first knew Colonel George he was starting with Lucius Fairchild, the ex-governor of Wisconsia, for the west. This was during the 58 craze. He and Fairchild were in partnership in the hotel business, but as in partnership in the hotel business, but as soon as the excitement cooled he and the Colonel returned to Madison, Wis., where he again launched into the hotel business, being the proprietor of the United States hotel in that city. After a time the Colonel failed in this enterprise and from Madison he went to Chicago and there that the Devember which also came to started the Revere house, which also came to grief, under his supervision. Next, the colonel went to St. Paul and started a hotel colonel went to St. Paul and started a hotel with a man named Dutcher. Things went smoothly for a while and Colonel George married Dutchers daughter. As Dutcher supplied most of the money in the business and George the brains, the marriage was considered by many a capital move. Dutcher being a sport, was fond of horse racing, etc., and Mrs. George being extravagant, the hotel business succumbed to neglect. This led to divorce preceedings on part of Mrs. led to divorce proceedings on part of Mrs. George, who was backed up in the struggle against her husband by her mother. It was reported that Mrs. George herself never wanted a divorce. The Colonel did not contest the legal proceedings, and the result was that Mrs. George came out the win ner, taking unto herself all property that had heretofore belonged to both. The Colonel then left his family and came to Omaha. Mrs. George, it is claimed, is very well off. and her two sons are filling good and lucra-tive positions in St. Paul."

THE DIVORCE LAW. It Should Require a Residence of Two Years in Nebraska. "When I was a member of the senate, some years ago," said a prominent lawyer, "there was a bill introduced, making divorce in this state impossible save after a residence nere of at least two years. The bill went through without opposition. When it got to the house, it was killed by some lawyersthey wern't lawyers-who were afraid they might lose a fee of $15, for securing a di-"We have the poorest divorce law in the

"I know of cases where traveling men, be coming dissatisfied with married life, have rented a room here, put in it a trunk and some eld goods and went off and attended to other business in other parts of the country. At the end of six months they returned, claimed they had resided here during that time and secured a divorce. "People have been sent here by Chicago lawyers because divorces may be obtained here more readily. I know even of cases where parties have come here from England solely to be divorced.

"The period of residence ought to be extended to two years, especially with tran-sients. In the case of those who are known to the residents of this place, of course, the strictness need not be applied. In construing this law, even as it stands now, the judges do not do all that they might do in the premises. They should ascertain whether these people who seek divorce and reside here only six months, are really bona fide residents of the place, instead of being as they generally are, adventurers who establish themselves here out temporarily in order to be freed from their martial obligations."

Highway Robbery.

As James Walsh was passing down Thirteenth street to his home at 520 South Fourteenth street shortly before 11 o'clock Tuesday night, he was seized by a couple of highwaymen, who struck him over the head and face a number of times with a sandbag, gagged him and robbed him of his money and a watch. The robbers fled. He describes one of them as a tall, smooth-faced fellow who wore a cap, and the other as being short and thick-set, having a sandy mustache, and wearing brown clothes and a soft hat. Mr. Walsh carries a badly disfigured face as a result of the assault.

Shortly afterwards a couple of fellows answering the description were arrested by Officer Cullen. They give the names of Biliy Young and Ed McAndrews.

BY-GONE DAYS.

A Memento Gotten Up by Some Pioncers.

The day on which the Council Bluffs and Omaha bridge was opened, a jolly crowd of pioneers occupied one of Jim Stephenson's old Concord coaches, one of the two surviv ors of a species of vehicles which the advent of the railroads has rendered almost extinct. The outfit attracted a great deal of attention The gentlemen composing the party felt there was something in the affair more than an ordinary ride. They felt that it was the means of bringing together, and under pecultarly appropriate circumstances, a party who had been early in the development of the country, and who had witnessed the de-velopment, especially in the matter of trans-portation, from the rude stage on which they portation, from the rude stage on which they rode, to the palatial ears which now roll into the very crevices of the mountains them-selves. They agreed to persecute the event, and accordingly on the following day drove to Hauseom park, where with a slight swell in the ground, and tall and almost bare trees standing against the glory of the declining standing against the glory of the declining sun, the party was caught in admirable style by the camera. Six horses stand motionless attached to the vehicle, at the head of the wheelers being Jim Stephenson himself. Beside the driver sits Colonel Hooker, with his broad felt hat. Behind him on the roof sits John A. Creighton, with his gray hair, grayer beard and tall silk hat; next to him sits M. C. Keith and Captain Marsh; S. S. Stevens, of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific peers from out one of the windows, Harry Deuel, of the Union Pacific from a second, and Mat Clair, also of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, from the third. On the ground in the vicinity of the coach are E. Huntoon, of the United States Express company; W. J. Max-United States Express company; W. J. Maxwell, R. E. Palmer, Flemon Drake, of the Nebraska Telephone company and Dan Shull. A relief driver stands in the rear. The picture is a magnificent one, and a souvening which all the subjects greatly admire. Few people have any idea of the magnitude of the business we are doing. It is a sight to see the throng of buyers always in our store. The biggest throng is on the second floor, among the overcoats. Though the weather has been warm and other houses have sold but few overcoats, we have moved thousands of them already. We had an immense stock-enough we thought to last us through the season-but our tremendous trade the past two weeks has thinned them out so much that we have to let up advertising them for a few days, until we get in fresh goods, for which we have telegraphed our buyer.

Our special sales are becoming famous throughout the city and state, and in accordance with our promise to give every week some new drives, we will this week have a BIG SUIT SALE. During the next six days we will prove most conclusively to the thousands who may call on us, that we faithfully keep our promises.

It is the always carrying out to the letter what we advertise, that has made The Nebraska Clothing Company famous and our name a household word throughout this section.

The following extraordinary offerings are made for this week-

Lot No. 1, consists of about four hundred Business Suits, all sacks, plain and fancy cheviots and cassimeres, STRICTLY ALL WOOL, with good serge lining and honestly made at $5.50. Make no mistake, this is not a cheap suit. It is as good as you will buy anywhere at from $10 to $12. It may seem impossible for us to sell it at $5.50, but we have promised something extraordinary and here it is. Don't take our word for it, but come and see for yourself.

Lot No. 2, is a line of very fine black corkscrew suits, sacks and frocks, the regular price of which is $15. and for which other houses would charge from $18 to $20. Will be sold this week at $9.50 for the sack and $9.75 for frock suits.

In lot 3, we offer the CLIMAX OF BARGAINS—our great $10 suit. We have in this lot two styles of cassimere suits, on which we stake our reputation, that they are honestly worth double the money. One is a plain gray, the other a fine silk mixed cassimere. We will simply say that this line of $10 suits is destined to become the greatest advertisement for us.

Lot No. 4, Is a line of elegant cutaway Frock Fuits, made of fine fancy worsted, one of the choicest suits ever offered; tailor made and beautiful fitting. These suits are made for men who demand and can appreciate a superior character of worknanship. They sell ordinarily for $25; we offer them this week at $13. This is the most fearful slaughter of Suits that we ever got into in the very midst of our busiest season.

We are opening to-day and placing in stock some very handsome styles of Children's Overcoats of beautiful designs and trimmings. The prices are in accordance with all our goods-extremely low.

Plain Figures and One Price.
